OVERLOOK LODGE – the new flats at the CERVO Mountain Boutique Hotel

Zermatt, 1 September 2017: when the 2017/18 winter season gets under way, the OVERLOOK Lodge by CERVO Zermatt will be the new accommodation of choice in Zermatt for anyone looking to spend their holidays in private surroundings while enjoying all the benefits of CERVO's hotel service. The newly constructed lodge houses five luxurious flats offering up to 152 m2 of space, set in an exclusive location with views of the Matterhorn.

A tempting prospect for families and design enthusiasts alike

The new OVERLOOK Lodge by CERVO Zermatt combines breathtaking vistas, Alpine lifestyle and innovative architecture to exceptionally stylish effect. Whether it is summer or winter, families and friends can come here to enjoy privacy, escape and adventure at the foot of the legendary Matterhorn. The five flats, which contain a total of 20 beds, have been fitted out using sophisticated materials in a fusion of Nordic and Alpine design. Fans of CERVO's signature interior style will also feel relaxed and – most importantly – right at home in this new five-star lodge. The OVERLOOK Lodge provides holiday accommodation with all the benefits of the CERVO lifestyle at attractive prices, with extra services available to book separately. Guests can therefore upgrade their stay to five-star standard upon request.

Concierge Service by CERVO Zermatt

Holidaymakers who value their privacy but want to enjoy all the benefits of staying in a hotel can take advantage of the extensive range of all-inclusive services offered by CERVO Zermatt, such as transfers to and from the railway station upon arrival and departure and specific cleaning services, to name but a few. Additional services designed with guests' well-being in mind can also be booked upon request, as required. These range from packed lunches and catering options to massages.

Reservations for the OVERLOOK Lodge can be made from August 2017 by contacting the CERVO Mountain Boutique Hotel at www.overlook.swiss or calling +41 (0)27 968 12 12

CERVO 3.0 – already making a strong impression this summer

The boutique resort at the foot of the Matterhorn is also boasting a new-look team. As of this summer, Laura V. Hofmann has stepped in to provide active support for Seraina and Daniel F. Lauber in running the CERVO Mountain Boutique Hotel. The 34-year-old is taking over the management of the hotel itself. Seraina Lauber is continuing to take care of administrative tasks and any culinary matters at the resort, while Daniel F. Lauber is still focusing on creative projects and exciting opportunities for further development.

About the CERVO Mountain Boutique Resort

The resort boasts a unique location overlooking Zermatt, topped off with magnificent views of the Matterhorn. The eight chalets, designed with a luxurious lifestyle in mind, contain a total of 36 rooms and suites, which can be rented individually or as entire chalets depending on guests' requirements. Each of these chalets features its own spa area. When it comes to cuisine, guests can indulge themselves on the delicious concoctions served at the prestigious CERVO Puro restaurant or be won over by the casual Alpine dining experience on offer at the Ferdinand restaurant. The CERVO Lounge is also a popular place to meet for an energising drink or a refreshing snack between meals. The five-star hotel is also a top venue for events, meetings and private functions. The house is accessible by lift or on foot. www.cervo.ch/en/

P.S.: the upcoming winter season will see the opening of 'Grapes & Juniper', a new gin and wine bar hidden away on the CERVO site. 'Seek and you shall find' is the name of the game and guests with a taste for discovery will be keen to investigate the superb gins on offer.
